COLLEGE OF SAINT TERESA

Pope Pius XII

He looms against the Papal throne
Slender, pale, majestic, still,
Pulsating marble, like to stone
On which the leasting house is built.

His piercing eyes like fire ablaze
Warm the cold bewildered flock;
Uplifted hand in blessing raised,
This staunch and unrelenting rock.

All robed in white, the fleece of lamb,
The lonely pastor helps his guard
And guides with care distraught man
Through barren fields seared and scarred.

Dorothy Brandt

Dedication

To our Holy Father, Pope Pius XII, we dedicate the 1952 Windmoor. In him we find those qualities the modern world so needs today; learning sanctified by wisdom; culture refined by spirituality; and a love for humanity warmed by a personal love for each soul.

We, the seniors of the college of St. Teresa, realize that we have been especially favored, and under our spiritual leader resolve to carry out his commission "to direct ideas, dissipate prejudices, explain and diffuse the teachings of the Church." We take as addressed to ourselves, the words he so eloquently spoke to the Catholic women of Italy on their political and social obligations:

> "Courage then, Catholic women and girls. Work without ceasing, without allowing yourselves ever to be discouraged by difficulties or obstacles. May you be under the patronage of His wonderful Mother, restorers of home, family and society. May divine favors descend on you in a copious stream; favors in token of which we impart to you with all the affection of our paternal heart an apostolic benediction."

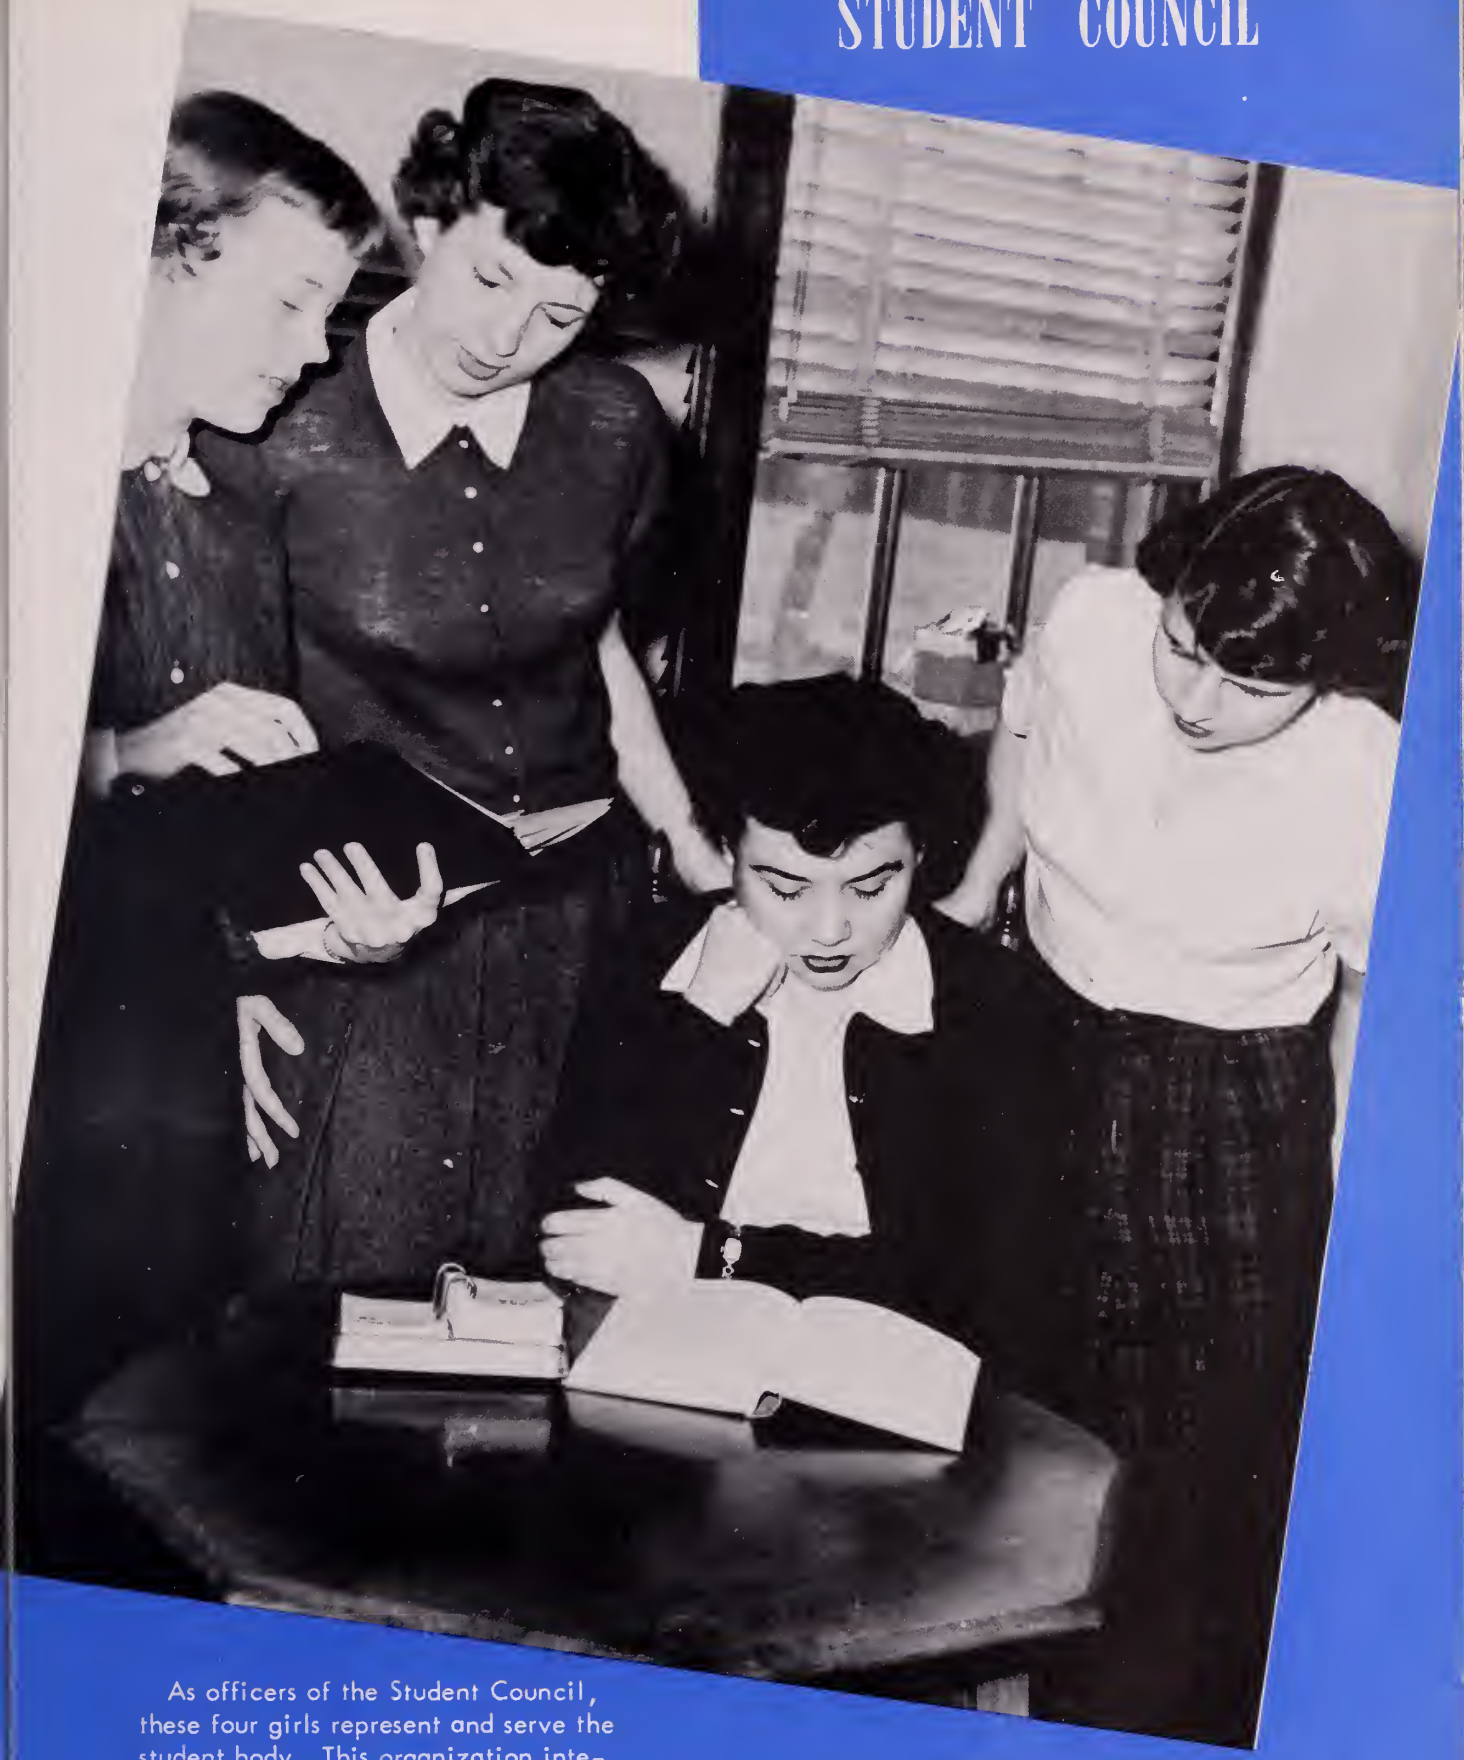
STUDENT COUNCIL



As officers of the Student Council, these four girls represent and serve the student body. This organization integrates all campus activities and trains its members in leadership.

MUSIC CLUB

Members of the Music Club meet for rehearsal. Each month the students in this club present an informal recital. The organization does not restrict its membership to the musically talented, but encourages appreciative listeners who find aesthetic satisfaction in music.

INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS CLUB

The IRC officers display the flags of the United Nations. This organization stresses students' civic obligations to the community. The IRC is a commission of the National Federation of Catholic College Students.

THE TERESIAN editors prepare copy for the next monthly issue. As an outlet for journalistic initiative, the college's official publication has served the school for twenty-one years. And for the past five years THE TERESIAN has merited All-Catholic rating.

DRAMA CLUB

Whether they play fairy tales to children, or Antigone to college students, the Drama Club members aim to entertain. The members of this group know the joy of giving pleasure to others and find an outlet for dramatic ability, artistic talent, and backstage industry.

MISSION CLUB

Through prayer and material aid this group helps the missions at home and abroad. As a member of the Catholic Students Mission Crusade the Mission Club serves a vital part of the Church Militant. Its members realize the importance of spreading the Kingdom of Christ on earth.

SODALITY OF OUR LADY

Sodalists on the college campus strive to live the story of the Blue Mantle. Mary guides their way. Through attendance at monthly community Masses and by uniting for recitation of the Rosary they stress the importance of group prayer.

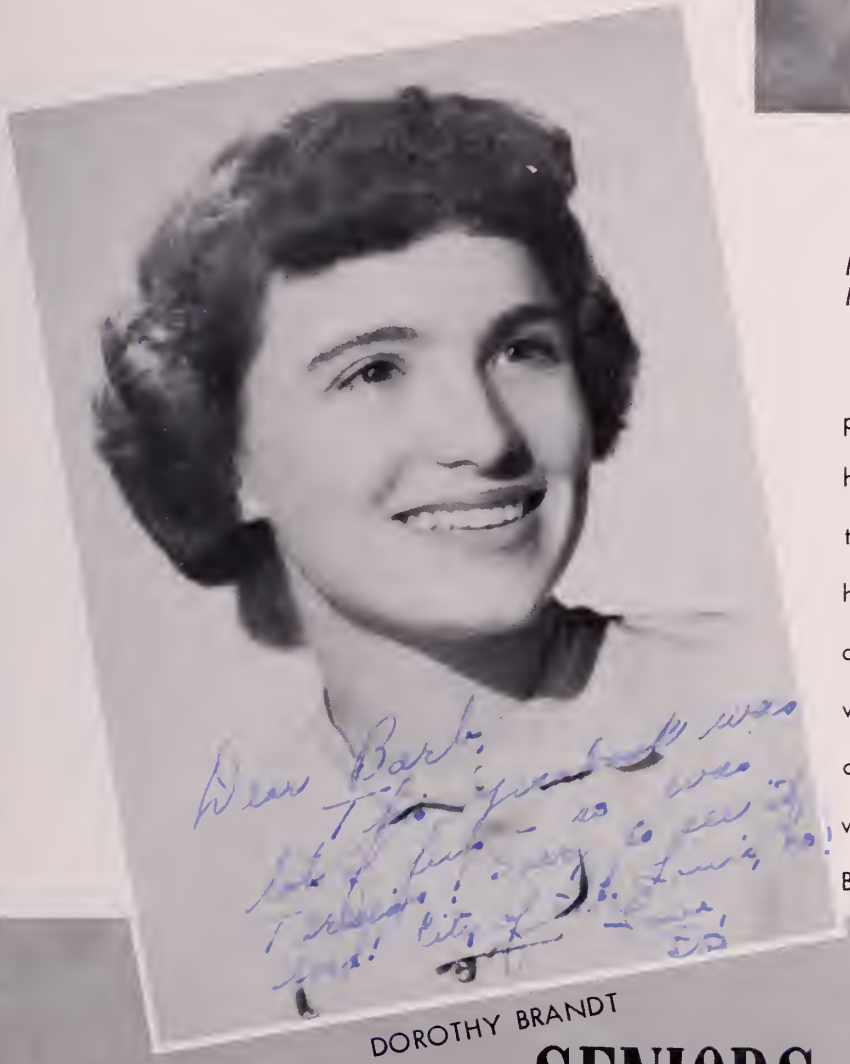
ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Mental relaxation through physical exertion is the goal of the Athletic Club. Teresians recreate scholastic zeal by exercising faculties not called upon in the classroom. Thus Christians adopt the Grecian theory of a complete education.

HELEN MARY LATHROP

Major: English
Minors: Education, Philosophy, and History

Helen's scholarly hobbies consist of saving notes and collecting newspaper and magazine articles. Her fondness of reading qualifies her for writing WHAT'S WHAT, a special column for THE TERESIAN, and for editorship of THE GOLDEN ECHO. She wants to be a high school English teacher. She did her practice teaching at Southwest High School.



DOROTHY BRANDT

Major: English
Minors: History and Education

Dorothy got her journalistic interest in photography from editing THE TERESIAN from her sophomore to her senior year. She intends to swim and to bowl for exercise while teaching high school English. Dorothy has several one-act plays and a full-length children's play which she hopes to see published. During her college career she has won various literary awards and had her one-act play "Once in a Blue Moon" produced for a civic festival.

SENIORS

MARIAN NIEMANN

Major: English
Minors: Education and Philosophy

Marian likes sports of all kinds. Some of them are playing the clarinet, going to conventions, and dieting. Marian wants to be an A-1 teacher. She did her practice teaching in third and fourth grade at Border Star. This year Marian is Prefect of the Sodality.

Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry and Philosophy

Between changing tires on the Pontiac and going to work, Joan finds time to sell Sacred Heart pictures and to plan OSP shows. She is chairman of the Eucharistic committee of the Sodality and also campus OSP chairman. Joan intends to be a laboratory technician.

JOAN FOLLINA

JANE BOPPART

Major: French
Minors: English and Philosophy

Jane is preparing to fulfill her ambition (beachcombing on the Riviera) by swimming and sunbathing in the Ozarks. She spends winter months knitting argyles. Jane holds three vice-president offices this year: in the Athletic Club, the Rockhurst Pep Club, and the Senior Class.

ANN TOMLINSON

Major: Nursing

Ann's side-line interest is bowling. After she completes her work on her R.N., she plans to be a Trans-World Airlines stewardess. For the past two years Ann has been in residence at Rossiter Hall.

JEANNINE McQUILLEN

Major: Mathematics
Minors: English and Philosophy

Jeannine finds diversion in knitting argyles and in boating in the Ozarks. Her ambition is to do mathematical research. Jeannine is active in the IRC as recording-secretary. She is also the class representative on the Student Council.

DOROTHY ANN PLASSMEYER

Major: Nursing

Dorothy finds relaxation in reading, writing poetry, and in collecting records. During her Senior year she represents her class on the Nurses' Student Council. Dorothy intends to be a public health nurse.

NANCY JUNE DRANEY

Major: Nursing

Nancy's recreation consists in sewing, cooking, and playing tennis. She wishes to enter either the industrial or public health nursing fields. During her four years of college Nancy has been active in Sodality projects.

ANNA LAURA HENNESSY

Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry and Philosophy

Anna Laura's hobbies are cooking and sewing. She likes to swim, fish, and read O. Henry's short stories. Her ambition is to be a laboratory technician and to get married. Anna Laura is an active Sodalist and a member of the Eucharistic Committee.

RUTH ROCHA

Major: Nursing

Sewing and listening to semiclassical music take up Ruth's off-the-floor time. She is the Secretary-Treasurer of the Nurses' Senior Class. After she receives her degree she intends to combine marriage with public health nursing.

Major: Nursing

Ruth is from Wichita, Kansas. She spends off-campus hours in handcraft hobbies and sewing. Ruth graduates with a degree in Nursing, having acquired her R.N. previously.

RUTH CAMERON

Major: Nursing

Mary Lou engages in community singing and in dancing for recreation. She also enjoys reading and knitting. After she receives her degree in nursing she plans on entering industrial nursing. This past year she has contributed her literary talents to THE SIGNAL LIGHT, a monthly paper put out by the nursing students.

MARY LOU WALDMAN

PEGGY ATHA

Major: Music Theory
Minors: Piano and Philosophy

Peggy has been a resident student from St. Joseph, Missouri, for four years. She is President of the Senior Class, and likes to design formals and to sing. Her more practical ambition is to teach singing, although like all vocalists, she aims at the Met.

CAROL MIEGEL

Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry and Philosophy

After working hours Carol finds relaxation in knitting, bridge or gardening. She lent a willing hand to clerical work on The Windmoor, and she belongs to the business staff of THE TERESIAN. She plans to be a medical technician.

Major: Education
Minors: Physical Education and Philosophy

Jo Ann is president of the Athletic Club. Between trips back East, she spends her time writing letters. Jo Ann will use the diplomacy acquired at NSA conventions as a grade school

JO ANN O'CONNOR

KATHLEEN MARY O'NEILL

Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry and Philosophy

Katie carries over biology technique to a hair-cutting hobby. Though busy on campus, cleaning out test tubes, she took time out to be Vice-President of the Student Council and do make-up work on the yearbook.

MARY JO BEUDER

Major: English
Minors: History and Philosophy

Some of Mary Jo's leisure time is devoted to writing nonsense verse and short stories and listening to good music. She prefers to make her career in advertising work, but may compromise as backfield coach at Notre Dame. As President of the Student Association Mary Jo wields the gavel at weekly assembly periods.

LUCY ARMIJO

Major: Economics
Minors: Music Theory and Philosophy

Lucy collects foreign envelopes and rare stamps. She enjoys music and plans to join the foreign service. Her talents in singing and dancing have contributed to many programs. She holds the chairmanship of the Constitution Committee of IRC this year.

THERESA JOAN POVALA

Major: Nursing

Joan enjoys reading, compiling scrapbooks, and any sports activity. She is President of the Nurses' Student Council and editor of THE SIGNAL LIGHT, the nurses' monthly publication. Her intended career is public health nursing.

LESTA ILEEN McCONNELL

Major: Nursing

During her first year at CST, Lesta was a resident student. She is from Independence, Kansas. Her hobbies run the gamut from training dogs to listening to classical music. She intends to do public health nursing or surgery supervision.

MARY AGNES LYNCH

Major: Education
Minors: Physical Education and Philosophy

Mary Agnes' work at the Catholic Community Center is interspersed with hours at the Rockhurst switchboard. After graduation she wants to be an airline hostess or an elementary teacher. She did her practice teaching in the third grade at Kumpf.

PATRICIA ANNE MAGGARD

Majors: English and Speech
Minor: Philosophy

Patsy's diversified interests go from cooking spaghetti and meat balls to writing and giving speeches. She is President of the Drama Club and holds an NSA Regional Office. Between travels, she intends to direct plays.

LORETTA MAE MONACK

Major: Biology
Minors: English and Philosophy

Loretta's hobby is taking trips to New York with bridge for enroute entertainment. She is regional OSP Chairman. After graduation she intends to finish writing a book she started two years ago and to study lab technology.

MARY JO JUNKER

Major: Education
Minors: Mathematics and Philosophy

Between classes, Mary Jo danced in the college presentations of children's plays: She enjoys all sports and was always an enthusiastic member of the Athletic Club. She plans to make use of her major in education by teaching in the grade schools. This year she is class Treasurer.

EVELYN MARIE KIPPING

Major: Nursing

Crossword puzzles and reading take up Evelyn's off-duty hours. She also likes to play baseball and to bowl. After graduation, Evelyn intends to pursue interests in nursing and in travel.

FATIMA HUI YUNG WU

Major: Biology
Minors: Chemistry and Philosophy

Fatima likes to cook international dishes, to play bridge, and to attend movies. She plans to master in bacteriology and to pursue work in medical technology. This fall she begins her work on her master's degree at Johns Hopkins University. Fatima came to CST in her sophomore year from Kwong Woh University in Hong Kong.

Major: Nursing

Dottie likes swimming, dancing, and shoes. She plans to be a public health nurse after graduation until she is married. During her first two years Dorothy was a boarder at the college, and her last two years have been in residence at Rossiter Hall. Her home is in the Blue Grass State.

DOROTHY DEAN EXLER

MARY JO CHIARELLI

Major: Education
Minors: Home Economics and Philosophy

Mary Jo spends her leisure time knitting and bowling. As business manager she put the WIND-MOOR over a financial hurdle in the fall ad drive. After a teaching career, she wants a home and three boys.

RITA MARIE TREADWELL

Major: Nursing

Rita's hobbies are photography and art. She enjoys athletics too, especially riding. After graduation she will combine nursing with marriage. Rita comes from Brunswick, Georgia. She was a border on the CST campus her first two years and has spent the last two at Rossiter Hall. Her four years away from her dear South have made her love it more than ever.

CATHERINE BRENNAN

Major: Nursing

Catherine is an R.N. from Ireland. She graduated at the end of the first semester after carrying a class schedule along with a nursing career during her college years. Catherine received her training in nursing at Mercy Hospital, Des Moines, Iowa.

Major: Music Theory
Minors: Piano and Philosophy

Mary likes to play baseball and to knit. After graduation she plans to be a high school choral teacher. Mary Elizabeth has been a resident student from Wellington, Missouri, during her four college years. This year she is President of the Boarders and Secretary-Treasurer of the Music Club.

MARY ELIZABETH JELICIC

Major: Nursing

Mary Pat is already a registered nurse, having had her training at St. Mary's Hospital here in Kansas City. She holds unique position in her class of being the oldest of thirteen children Her hobbies include bowling and swimming.

MARY PATRICIA O'BRIEN

BARBARA ANN RAU

Major: History
Minors: Radio and Philosophy

Between golf and bridge games, Barbara finds time to read and to fly to Chicago. She intends to join the foreign service after graduation. During the summer of 1950 Barbara traveled widely through Europe on a Student tour. This year she is President of the Internation Relations Club.

RUTH TYNAN

Major: Mathematics
Minors: French and Philosophy

As editor of the yearbook, Barbara found the excitement she likes. She wants to be a high school mathematics teacher and spend her summers taking movies of trips she dreams of. Barbara did her practice teaching in geometry and algebra at Southwest High School. As an active press member, she was chosen one of three delegates to represent CST at the National Catholic Press Association in Milwaukee.

Major: Education
Minors: French and Philosophy

Ruth's extrcurricular interests follow the college knitting and bridge-playing trend. She wants to be a school teacher in her hometown, Denver. Ruth did her practice teaching in the second grade at Bryant School. This year she filled two secretarial positions that of corresponding secretary of IRC and class secretary.

Summer days like autumn leaves fell to a colorful end. . we stored vacation spirit beneath the overturned picnic benches and began anew the college year. . the first thrill of meeting classmates once more. . anxiety over schedules. . a burst of scholastic enthusiasm. . then the almost old routine. . Autumnal melancholy broken by College Day. . Windmoor festivities. . conventions. . Who's Who elections. . Twelfth Night. . Hansel and Gretel. . and nostalgic bonfires reminiscent of summer. These are our autumn memories.

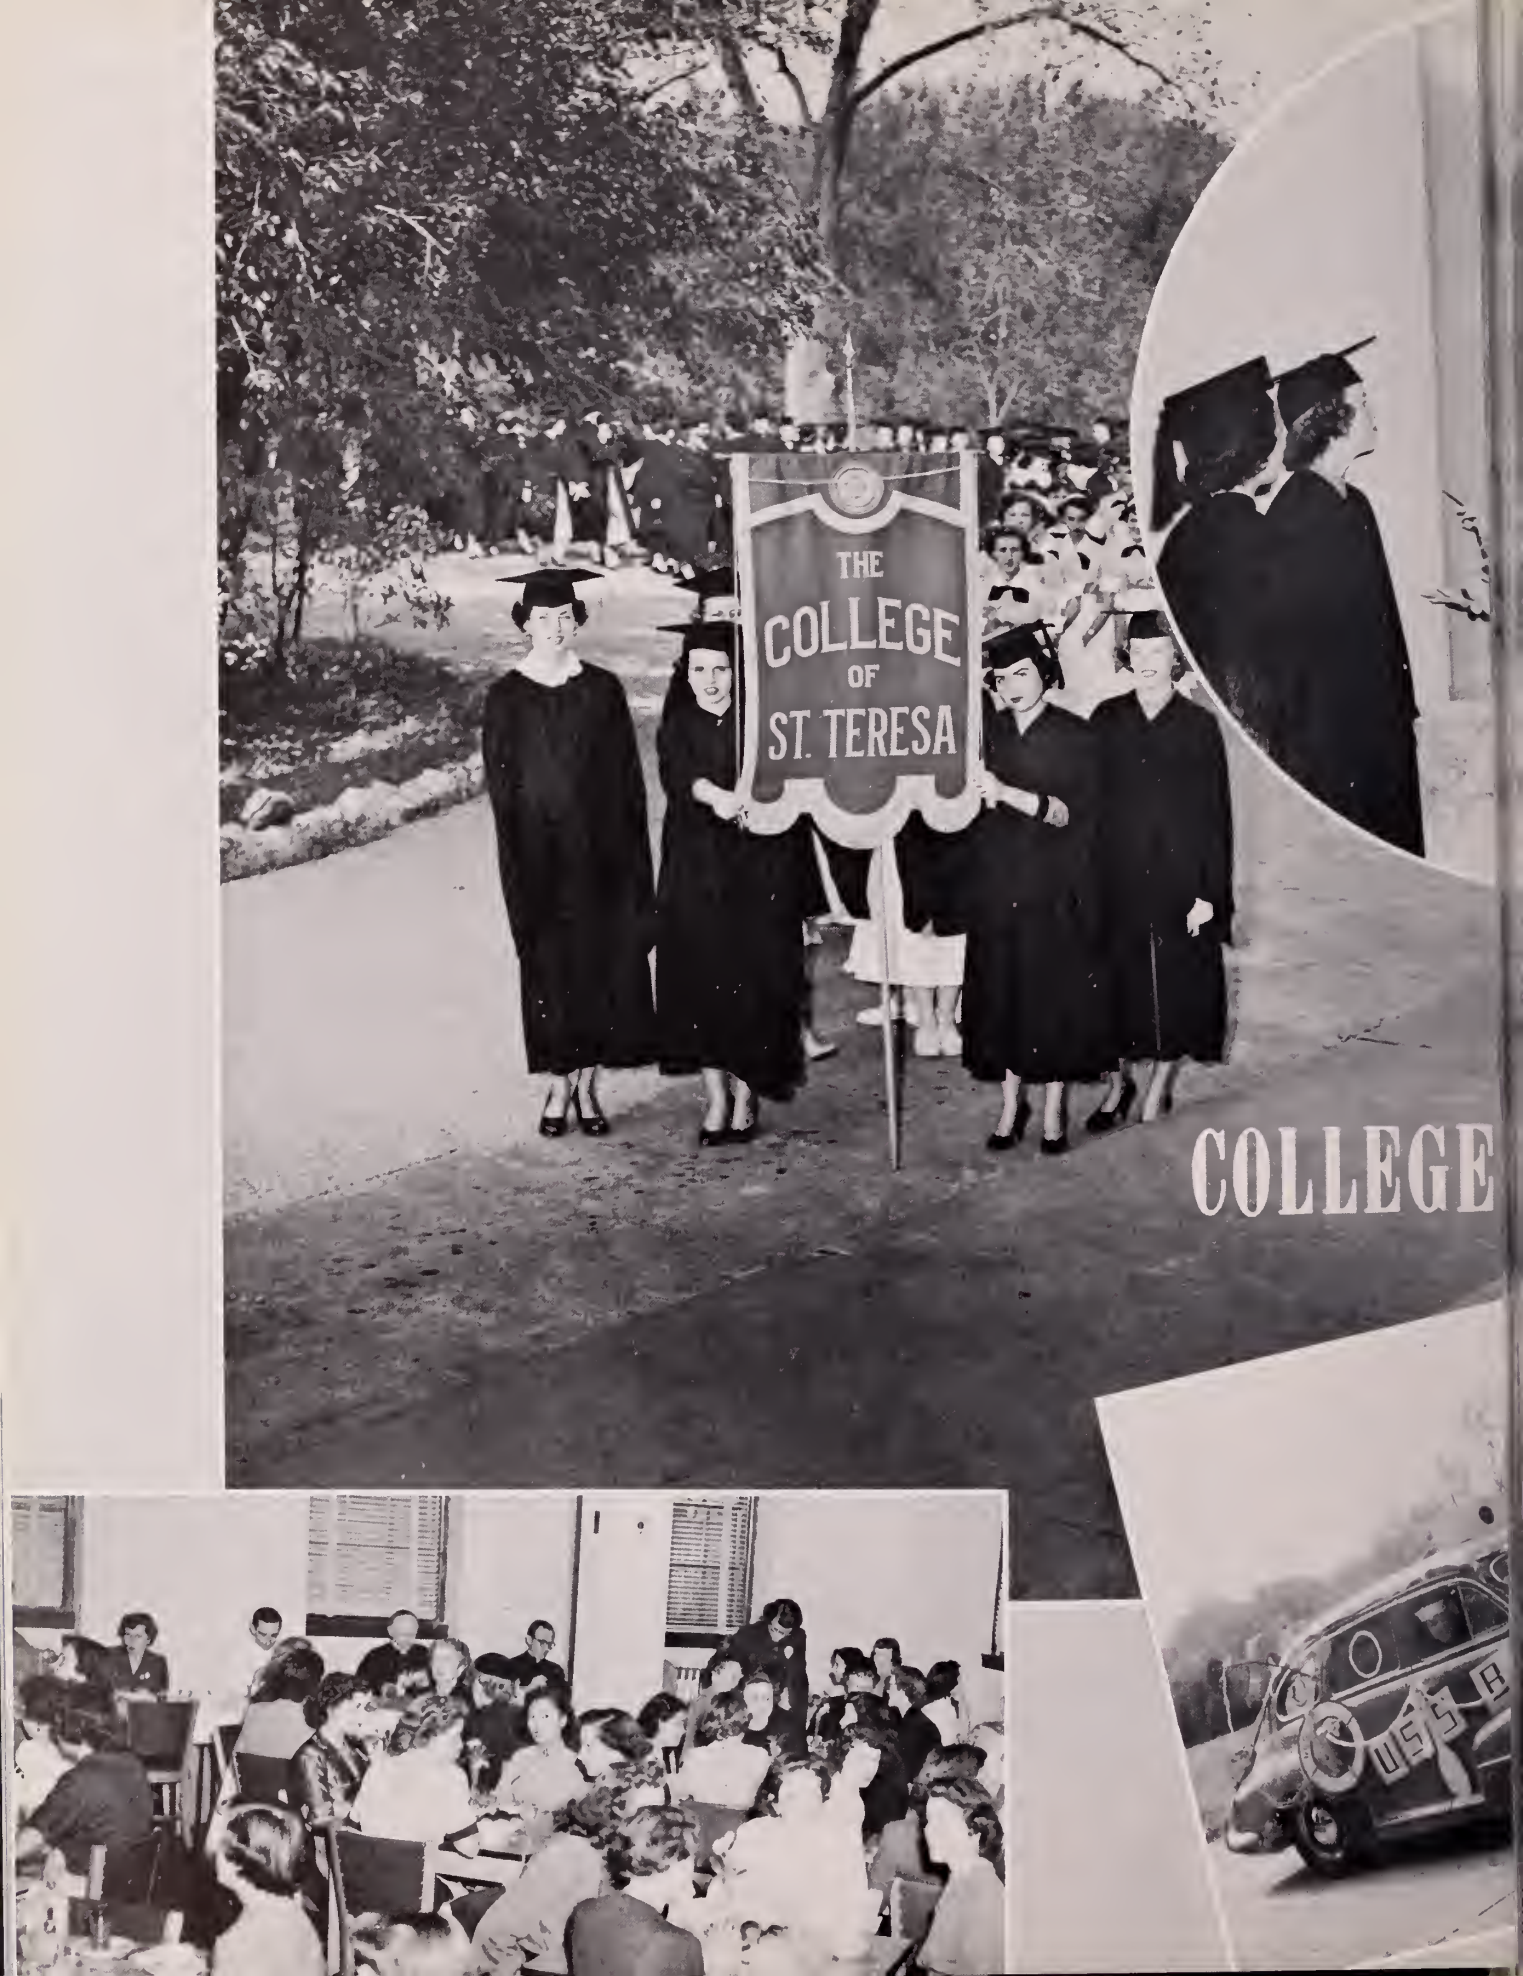
BACK TO SCHOOL

Books displaced cameras, and picnic grounds gave way to classrooms as autumn brought back school days. Curricular questions were solved on little white cards marked Dean or Registrar. . and Father Lyons had the answers for Vocational problems.

OPEN HOUSE

Math students explained the workings of linkage to the open house guests. Across the hall, the Home Ec Department served tea and Russian cookies.

The Golden Echo staff presented a bona fide demostration. Sister Marcella Marie, faculty advisor, and editor Helen Lathrop check copy for the winter issue while contributors Mary Jo Beuder and Madelon Perreault look on.



COLLEGE

DAY, 1951

KEY DAY

...was the first of the many graduation ceremonies. Mother Berenice presented the seniors their keys in an afternoon assembly.

After formalities, the graduating class sponsored a coke party in the cafeteria. Sister de La Salle enlivened the party with song while the juniors wished health to the comprehensive-minded seniors.

WINTER

. . the crusted snow broken by heavy car tracks. . late afternoon classes and lights in the windows. . and icy 56th Street hill. . the windswept moor by the Main Street entrance. . Key Day. . the Sodality Party. . Christmas Cantata. . a holiday formal. . New Year spirit. . inevitable semester exams. . senior comprehensives. . retreat and a beginning of the long Lenten season.

YULETIDE CHEER

Rolla miners added their voices to those of sixty Teresian choristers in a festive Christmas Cantata. Additional entertainment at the punch table, on the dance floor, and around the piano in the lounge filled out the evening.

BRINGS DANCE AND SONG

A string trio from the Kansas City Philharmonic Orchestra accompanied the chorus while Sister de La Salle directed. In the picture below are three of the leading sopranos: Peggy Atha, Mary Elizabeth Jelicic, and Pat Day.

The first taste of Christmas came to children of the Alumnae when Santa Claus wished them all a "Merry Christmas" with sacks of candy, animal cookies, and balloons.

ALUMNAE PARTY

Alumnae mothers held a seasonal tea in the Georgian lounge while Santa Claus entertained their children in the Assembly Hall.

The resident students are feted by the faculty at the annual Christmas banquet. It is a prelude to a two weeks' vacation at home.

NOEL FESTIVITIES

The traditional Advent wreath ceremony opened the festivities of the Sodality party. Later Santa Claus--Dominican in disguise--blew in from the land of the leperchauns.

The sophomore class commemorated the Yuletide Season with a formal dance at the Hillcrest Country Club. Norine Beuder, left, and Marita Lynch, right, pose with their dates.

Holiday Dances

The Leap Year was ushered into CST by the freshman class at an informal mixer to the tune of old time favorites and popular songs decorations.

EXAM DAYS

...brought the first semester to a close and reactions stretched the gamut. Nursing exams to the west wind in a light moment...concentration took a bridge-ward turn...upper division frenzy...pony bobs pursued culture...and one fatigued sophomore expressed the question of the day--tired or just bored?

Retreat

...brought exam-worn students to the silence of the Oratory.

Leisurely reading supplanted the bustle of school life...

...and spiritual books replaced histories and humanities.

What Killed Vaudeville

The Press Club answered their eternal question in a talent review presented to raise funds for The Teresian. At right Teresians mimic the now famed Hawksters, The Lotus Eaters. The variety ran the gamut from hill billy music to Russian farce.

Al Jolson lived again in Joan Gilford's presentation of Sewanee, and the old-time melodrama had a new peel.

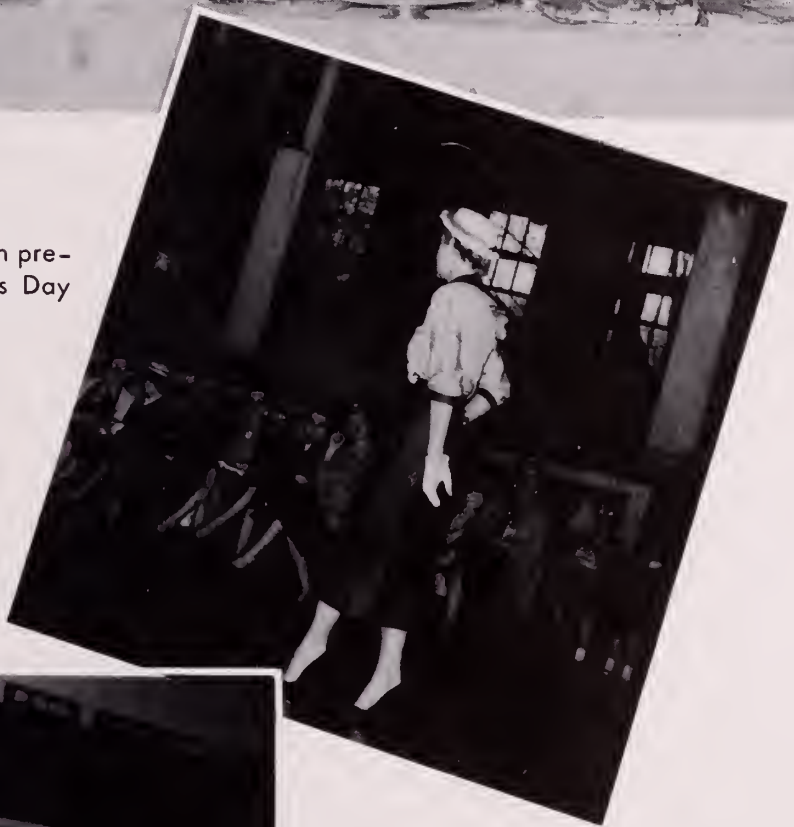
Marian Day

The annual Marian Day brought two hundred students from neighboring colleges to the Windmoor Campus to hear informative panels on the Blessed Mother. Sister Rose Agnes and Pat Collins plan the program for the day. Pat also conducted the St. Teresa discussion of Mary as Mediatrix.

English-Speech Assembly

The English Department students were script writers for Speech students who interpreted short stories, poems, and the one-act play (cast in picture at right) "Bye, Baby, Bunting," by Dorothy Brandt.

A Great Day For The Irish



The Alumnae Association presents its annual St. Patrick's Day tea and fashion show. . .

. . .after receiving the Academy and College seniors, irrespective of ancestry, into the Alumnae Association.

Father-Daughter Banquet

After the annual Father-Daughter Banquet the older generation showed the younger set how the Charleston really is danced; and the behind-the-scene helpers relaxed to the sound of clinking dishes.

SPRING

. . the dogwood tree turned pink and the stark trees of winter changed to delicate green to decorate an early Easter campus. . a fight against spring fever to finish term papers . . Field Day. . honor sororities. . the Prom. . May Crowning. . the spring play. . recital. . Class Day . . Baccalaureate. . and the mixed emotions of Graduation.
